

Exaltyca North Song

Strophe :

Adventures calling from seven seas the Musik sir running to says and seas Sailor waiting for familiys the sky is breaking, were feeling the breath

Bridge:

There´s thunder in the north a stormy sea, the waves are high We ´re going through the storm
The lightning grows, the fear will fight

Smoke through the water Where the fire burn so high
The clouding sea is fighting us
It´s really time to fly

Refrain:

We should gone to north where the air is nice running from the sun that touched our feet and burns our eyes coming from the south Where we start again
Searching for the lakes (streams) and baltic sea
We cruise again

We should go to the north waves will lead us to the end tails to hear some sorfull ?? days the past is leading memories fading comme ??? is open the crew gets drunk the ship is sailing into with ????
